

We study the relation between number of supermarkets and residents in the city of Zurich. We quantify the relation between this two variables and make predictions for the location of new supermarkets in the city.

All necessary files are available in this link:

https://drive.google.com/open?id=18QduJiQnPrGHBNDsLnSphVD02Kmb_0JS